

visual arts and design, photography, video, and digital media. The program also includes a variety of other activities, such as lectures, workshops, and exhibitions.