Submitting Proposals

- Professors/scholars from Università Ca' Foscari, Università Luav di Venezia, Università degli Studi di Padova and the CNR-Italian National Research Council may submit one or more proposals for core or specialization track courses. Successful candidates will teach one course during one semester.
- Professors from Boston College, INRS-National Institute for Scientific Research Canada, Duke University, European University at St. Petersburg, Ludwig Maximilians Universität, Tel Aviv University, Tongji University, Tsinghua University, University of Bordeaux, University of Lausanne, Waseda University must submit at least three proposals: two of the proposals should be intended to cover two core courses, or one core course and one specialization track course, while the third proposal may be for an additional course (see Appendix 2 for guidelines).

The VIU Academic Council will select two out of the three proposals submitted. Successful candidates will teach two courses during one semester.

Course proposals, a curriculum vitae and a covering letter should be submitted via email to the candidate's university representative on the VIU Academic Council (see page 4)² and in cc. to the Dean of VIU, Prof. Agar Brugiavini dean@univiu.org:

Each course proposal should include the following:

- a) A course description of approximately 500 words
- b) Learning outcomes of the course
- c) Teaching and evaluation methods, including the percentage of the overall grade assigned to each evaluation

² Further selection criteria in single universities may apply. Refer to respective Academic Council member for details.

- d) Bibliography - all reading materials should be in English
- e) Required preliminary knowledge (if any)
- f) indication of preferred semester(s)

The Curriculum Vitae should consist of a maximum of three pages, with up to four pages of publications attached separately.

Applicants are invited to consider the guidelines and the course abstracts provided in:

- Appendix 1_VIU Globalization Program and Guidelines for Professors.
- Appendix 2_VIU Globalization Program Course Abstracts

All course proposals and materials must be in English and in electronic format.

Deadline: February 29, 2016

The VIU Academic Council will meet in March/April 2016 to discuss the proposals. Selected professors will be notified by their university representatives shortly thereafter.

Remuneration of professors representing any of the Italian member institutions:

(Università Ca' Foscari Venezia, Università Iuav di Venezia, Università degli Studi di Padova or CNR-Italian National Research Council).

Professors teaching one 40-hour course in the Globalization Program of Venice International University will be paid € 3,000 (three thousand euro) gross. The necessary tax deductions will be applied at source.

Remuneration of professors representing any of the non-Italian member universities:

(Boston College; INRS-National Institute for Scientific Research, Canada; Duke University; European University at St. Petersburg; Ludwig Maximilians Universität; Tel Aviv University; Tongji University; Tsinghua University; University of Bordeaux; University of Lausanne; Waseda University):

Professors teaching two 40-hour courses in the Globalization Program of Venice International University will receive a Travel and Housing Allowance of €8,500 (eight thousand five hundred euro) gross, to contribute to travel, housing and auxiliary costs. According to the guidelines established by the VIU Board of Directors, this sum is gross and all inclusive. The allowance is granted to one professor from each foreign member university teaching at least two courses (40 hours each) during the Globalization Program of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences.

According to the Italian tax system the allowance is subject to tax and therefore 30% is deducted at source for personal income tax (IRPEF according to the Italian tax system). The sum paid by VIU to the Italian Tax Authority is deductible from the amount payable on personal income to the professor's National Tax Authority. Alternatively a professor may present a certificate of tax residency in a foreign country and therefore receive the gross sum.
