

VENETIAN ROUTES:
ENHANCING A EUROPEAN SHARED MULTICULTURAL SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

verotour

VeRoTour - Venetian routes: Enhancing a shared European multi-cultural sustainable tourism, is a project co-financed by the European Commission, DG Enterprise and Industry.

The project aims to enhance and implement a trans-national thematic cultural route following the extraordinary and complex system of maritime routes, settlements, defensives fortifications and cultural heritage left by the Venetians under the rule of the Republic of Venetia (the so-called Serenissima) since 1300 and throughout almost five centuries. Basing on a well-developed network of stakeholders and cooperation between the public_private partners of the consortium, the project aims to contribute to the diversification of trans-national thematic tourism offer in Europe

, by capitalizing on common cultural heritage on European level and by making of sustainability an essential element for being more competitive as stated in the latest Communication (COM(2010)352), “Europe, the world’s n.1 tourist destination – a new political framework for tourism in Europe”. In the

Study on the Impact of European Cultural Routes on SMEs’ innovation and competitiveness”

the economic potential of Cultural Routes is put in evidence and Cultural Routes are clearly indicated as a way to enhance competitiveness and sustainability of European tourism. The role of Cultural Routes is furthermore highlighted by intergovernmental organisations as OECD. In the document “The impact of Culture on Tourism” OECD highlights the importance of European cultural routes that allow visitors to rediscover important aspects of heritage and the flows along the routes help stimulate intercultural dialogue and exchange. The project will reinforce the public – private cooperation around the theme of the Venetian influence in Euro-Mediterranean countries and develop an integrated, joint trans-national communication and visibility strategy while developing trans-national tourism product promoting sustainable tourist practices

. A high number of small and micro enterprise

(SMEs) will be directly involved in the project thanks to a strong participation in the project of chambers of commerce Adriatic and Ionian in the aim to increase SMEs professionalism and thus competitiveness in the context of the new economy.
