VIU_ TeDIS is partner in several projects offering advanced training programs financed by the Veneto Region under the FESR POR 2007/2013 . The training are addressed to innovative companies located in the Veneto Region that have an interest in enhancing the expertise of their employees by offering them qualified training related to their work.

The following are the companies and the training offered:

Renè Caovilla Ltd : Training on management control for shoe company

Colorificio San Marco : From an international company to an internationalized company

Calzaturificio Scarpa : Effective communication for a specific brand management