VIU_TeDIS has been appointed by Innovacamera (former Asset Camera, Chamber of Commerce of Rome) to carry on dissemination and supporting activities within the framework of the Maker Faire 2016, 2015 and 2014, held in Rome annually in October.

the activities developed are:

-Manufacturing hackathon: Planning and coordination of manufacturing a Hackathon to be held at the location identified by the Chamber of Commerce of Rome.

-Makers school: the initiative involves the creation of a national network of technical and vocational schools that participate on a permanent, prototypes and projects to be presented during the events taking place in the Innovation Week

-Digital artisans: Organization in cooperation with the associations of a group of craftsmen who were able to transform their traditional business in innovation economically sustainable.

- call for school: promote the project in order to involve italian schools to participate to the call for application

from the web: (2016 edition):

- call for school

- call for universities and research institute

- call for makers

from the web (2015 edition):

- october 16, opening conference "Life with Machines"

- call for school

from the web (2014 edition):

- chefuturo.it

- artribune.com: innovative artisans ; call for school ; living hackathon ; makers

- chamber of architects Press Release