Engineering Informatica appointed VIU_TeDIS to analyze and develop innovative service models to be developed within the territory of the Veneto Region such as:

-fab lab: analysis and development of open labs on digital manufacturing

-open wifi: design the operative steps to spread the opn wifi on veneto region involving municipalities

-broadband: analysis of broadband evolution and stps done in relation to the operative National Plan for the optical fiber.