TeDIS center of the VIU won in 2005 a call for tender of Innovazione Italia for the production of a research titled: “ICT for the excellence of the territory”.

The issues of the analisys were:

- Analisys of the legislative tools
- Support to the regional administration for the individuation of the territory of excellence’
- Support to the regional administration for the reports of the “excellence plans”
- Support to the Scientific Committee in the approval phase