

□

Organizers

IUAV University of Venice

Venice International University

□

With the endorsement of

INEA, National Institute of Agricultural Economics

Comitato Expo Venezia

Enel Foundation

□

When

From October 2014 to January 2015

On Wednesdays at 2 pm

□

Where

Palazzo Badoer, San Polo 2468, 30125 Venice

Seminars Series on " Water, energy and food security towards Expo 2015. The challenge of large-scale land acquisitions ".

The need to ensure the sustainability of food and energy provision for a rising population is the main theme

The purpose of the seminar series is to discuss the identified issues by attracting contributions from leading

The duration of each seminar is 3 hours.

Participation to the workshop is free of charge.

However, for organisational purposes, participation will be subject to registration.

Please register here.

□□

October 22, 2014

“ Land deals: drivers, scope and impacts. The pathway towards more responsible investments ”

The seminar will introduce Prof. Meserli and deals, from the University of Bern, Prof. Kaldemeyer and Prof. Göttsche and Prof. ...

Peter Messerli (University of Bern) “Marginal land or marginal people? Analysing patterns and Kaitilin Cordes (Earth Institute, Columbia University) “Large-scale land acquisitions, contract fa

November 5, 2014

“ The water dimension of global land acquisitions ”

Every investment made in agricultural land is determined by the University of Pretoria and this in turn determines Prof. M

Maria Cristina Rulli (Politecnico di Milano) “Water appropriation in large-scal

Ward Anseeuw (University of Pretoria), “Challenges in accounting for global investments in farm

November 26, 2014

“ Conflicts and land acquisitions ”

The European and international law and policy implications of land acquisitions in the tropics and subtropics

Laura Fregolent (University IUAV of Venice) “Conflicts, landscape and renewable energies”

Matilde Carabellese (University of Naples) “Land grab: the case of soya and Argentina”

Filiberto Altobelli (Istituto Nazionale di Economia Agraria) “Food security and Principles for Responsible Investment”

December 10, 2014

“ Data availability and transparency in global land acquisitions ”

The complexity in the study of land acquisitions: the University of Stirling and the International Institute for Environment and Development

Martin Ostermeier (Hamburg, GIGA), “The Land Matrix – Patterns and Challenges of Tracking Large Scale Land Acquisitions”

Stefania Bracco (University of Siena) “Large-Scale Land Acquisitions in Africa: Exploring Actors

January 14, 2015

“Land and water resources: balancing the needs for food and energy”

Which are the main consequences of large-scale land acquisitions in the context of climate change? Prof. Holger Hoff

Mario Giampietro (University Autònoma Barcelona) “The Food-Energy-Water Nexus: A Multi-scale

Holger Hoff (Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research) “Large-scale land acquisitions

Emma Li Johansson (University of Lund) “Virtual water exports from land acquisitions in Africa”

January 28, 2015

EU and International Land deals

Giuseppina Siciliano will focus on the topic of Prof. Giorgia Giovannetti (European University Prof, N

Giuseppina Siciliano (School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London) “European trans

Giorgia Giovannetti e Nadia Giffaro (Firenze; University of Cassino) “Large scale land acquisitions in d

Tim Krieger (University of Freiburg) “How Institutions Shape Land Deals: The Role of Corrup

Detailed program.

For information please write to martaantonelli84@gmail.com

