VIU promotes international mobility by providing internship opportunities and scholarships to students of the Globalization Program. Following the semester of courses at VIU, selected students are offered internships at research centers, universities, cultural organizations and companies in Italy and abroad.

Discover more video interviews in the full playlist on VIU YouTube channel: VIU International Mobility and Internship experiences by VIU Students

Stefania Zardini Lacedelli S.Z.L.: The competences I developed should be further supported by museums, to find new ways in the transmission of cultural heritage and in the approach to the audience. Prof. Szabo: I could appreciate the concrete influences of the model developed with Stefania, which may be extended also in other contexts and in my future teaching.

Home university: Ca' Foscari University
Host University: Duke University, Spring 2014 Project

Stefania Zardini Lacedelli studies Economics and management of the arts and works in the Educational Department of Musei delle Regole (Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy). During her placement at the Dept. of Art History and Visual Studies of Duke Univeristy, U.S.A. with Prof. Victoria Szabo
, Stefania developed her research thesis “MAPS - Museum Accessibility platform” and an interactive online platform called MQUADRO. More info about
Museum Accesibility Platform

Camilla Crosta I understood how to work in an office and the complex process and different actors behind the planning and development of a public art project.

Home university: Ca' Foscari University
Host Institution: "Situations", Bristol U.K.
Fall 2012 Project

Camilla Crosta, student in Art History, attended the VIU Spring and Fall 2011 semesters and applied for an internship experience abroad during Fall 2012 in Bristol, U.K., where she had the unique opportunity to collaborate with Situations - one of the main actors in public art, and to use this experience as a case study for her final master thesis.

Linda Sloane This internship was really important for me because I got to see how museum works. Home university: Ca' Foscari University
Host Institution: "Peggy Guggenheim Collection"
Summer 2013 Sophia Botvinnik I chose VIU...because I wanted an university that wanted me to be here. Home university: Ludwig Maximilians Universtitaet
Institution: "Venice Carnival - 2013 Edition", Venezia Marketing ed Eventi
Spring 2013 Moritz Kienast " The pulse of the city is very different and this is what I want to take back home: the Venetian lifestyle. Home university: Ludwig Maximilians Universtitaet
Host Institution: "Venice Carnival - 2013 Edition", Venezia Marketing ed Eventi
Spring 2013 Reut Schwartz I learned from this field to be more organized and responsible for my job without supervision. Home university: Tel Aviv University
Host Institution: "Museo M9", Venice Foundation
Spring 2013

Inbal Timor It was really inspiring to me to see what I'm looking forward to do in my future. Home university: Tel Aviv University
Host Institution: Incroci di Civiltà Literary Festival
Spring 2013

Tehila Kronfeld

The reason I wanted to come to Venice, was that it has always been a dream of mine and actually that dream came true. Home university: Tel Aviv University
Host Institution: Venice Municipality
Spring 2012 Project

Tehila Kronfeld who attended VIU Spring 2012 Semester, did an internship at the Venice Municipality during the summer.

Mimì Rahman I am planning to pursue a career in environmental law after this experience Home university: Boston College

Host Institution: E-ambiente
Spring 2012 Project

Mehreen Rahman, who attended Spring 2012 Semester, did an internship at E-ambiente during the summer. The experience influenced a lot for her future plans.

Akari Muroi' ...since the many differences (in the work places)...I will be able to make comparison and be aware of the variety of the working style in the future.

Home university: Waseda University
Host Institution: Museum of Natural History
Fall 2011 Project

Akari Muroi, 20 years old, a VIU student from Waseda University who did an internship at the Museum of Natural History in Venice, talks about the working style of Italians, life in Japan vs. Venice and...more! She studied at VIU in Fall 2011.

Friederike Wagner For me, as a political science student, it was very good to improve soft skills like preparing a talk, giving a public speech in front of an international audience; there are many useful things that you can learn at the Guggenheim museum.

Home university: Ludwig Maximilians Universität
Host Institution:Peggy Guggenheim Museum in Venice
Spring 2012 Project

In this video interview, Friederike Wagner, a VIU student from LMU, talks about her internship at the Peggy Guggenheim Museum in Venice after Fall 2011 term.