VIU hosts Duke University undergraduate summer schools, which give students of Duke the opportunity to study Venetian civilization, religion, culture and art history on site during the month of June.

2016 :

May 24 - June 25, 2016

Past editions:

2015 :

Food for Thought: Understanding Italian Society and Culture through its food, Prof. Luciana Fellin

2014 :

The Venetian Empire and its Imperial Piety: Catholic Christianity, Prof. Sam Miglarese

2012 :

City and City Life in Italy, Prof. Valeria Finucci

2011 :

The Venice of Our Imaginations, Prof. Marianna Torgovnick;

The Art of Politics and the Politics of the Arts: Music, Art and Politics in Northern Italy, Prof. Ken Rogerson

2010 :

The Art of Politics and the Politics of the Arts: Music, Art and Politics in Northern Italy, Prof. Ken Rogerson

2008 :

City and City Life in Italy, Prof. Valeria Finucci;

Venetian Art of the Renaissance (15th-16th Century), Prof. Maria Agnese Wiel

2007 :

Venetian Art of the Renaissance (15th-16th Century), Prof. Maria Agnese Wiel;

The Venetian Empire (VXth & XVIth Centuries) and its Imperial Piety: Catholic Christianity and the role of the Virgin Mary, St. Mark, and the saint protectors of Venice, Prof. Sam Miglarese.

2006 :

Policy and the Imagination - Music, Drama, Eros, and Liberty, Prof. Bruce Payne
Venetian Art of the Renaissance (15th-16th Century), Prof. Maria Agnese Wiel.