

VIU is partnering with Al Gore's 24 Hours of Reality: The Road Forward, a global day of action and music to address Climate Change.

You can follow it online at www.24hoursofreality.org or join us at VIU where we have arranged a Watch Party to share together this urging issue. The Watch Party is held on Tuesday, Dec. 6 from 12.30 to 2.00 pm at VIU Meeting Room

This live-streamed multimedia show is promoted by The Climate Reality Project and will travel around the world for 24 hours of broadcast highlighting the top 24 carbon dioxide emitting countries, with the help of influential artists, scientists, thought leaders, and policy makers. In Europe (ECT) the show will start at midnight December 5 and conclude at midnight 24 hours later.

The aim of this sixth edition of the show is to keep the awareness about climate change high one year after the signature of the Paris Agreement, the first global agreement to cut greenhouse gas emissions. Numerous questions are still open about how each nation – and each of us individually – can create the continued change that is required. The point at hand is about the transition from debate and denial, to action and sustainable growth for all.

The Climate Reality Project is devoted to powering the social revolution for climate action. Founded by Nobel Laureate Al Gore, the millions strong organization stands up to climate denial and spreads the truth about the climate crisis to empower our leaders to take action.
